

When you have thoughts about opening your own business, the follow test will help you decide. If you answer 'yes' to any of these common situations, I am happy for you to contact me to discuss your ideas, or retain this letter, when you are ready later, put down your details below, by presenting this letter, you or your friend, could receive a complimentary one hour consulting meeting and a business guide worth total $700.

“I am fed up spending my time and using my business skills working for someone else. I want to finally start getting paid what I’m really worth.”	[] YES [] NO
“I’m worried about my job. With the economic climate the way it is, I’m not sure if my current job will exist this time next year. I’m considering opening my own business.”	[] YES [] NO
“I’ve recently been downsized from my job. At my age, nobody wants to hire me. Yet, I still have some strong business skills I’d like to use and contribute as a valuable member of society, and I’d like to work at my own pace, part-time as transition to retirement.”	[] YES [] NO
“I have ideas about business, I’d often read the business section of newspaper and I have some great experience, I could implement a lot of new and improved ways to do what I am doing now if I was working for my own company, and I think I can make it happen.”	[] YES [] NO
“While I am young, I can afford to try and run my own business, when I get older, I won’t have the luxury of time, motivation and freedom, I will have my mortgage and family to look after, I think I am better position now than the future to run a business myself”	[] YES [] NO
“While I am motivated, I’d like to try something new without pressure from employers and KPIs, I have the ‘fire in my belly’; I am a self starter, eager to learn, and I think I might not have the determination later.	[] YES [] NO

Your name: _____

Telephone: _____ email: _____